

(f) A copy of the Master Certificate shall be carried aboard each vessel covered by the Master Certificate. The original Certificate shall be retained at a U.S. location and be kept readily accessible for inspection by U.S. Government officials.

(g) Upon revocation or other invalidation of the Master Certificate, the original Certificate shall be returned within 10 days to the Commandant (G-MER-1) and all copies shall be destroyed by the person in whose name the Certificate was issued. The use of an invalid Master Certificate or any copy thereof is prohibited.

§ 130.12 Certificates, denial or revocation.

(a) A Certificate is denied or revoked for any of the following reasons:

(1) Making any willfully false statement to the Coast Guard in connection with an application for an initial Certificate or a request for a renewal Certificate or the retention of an existing Certificate.

(2) Failure to establish or maintain acceptable evidence of financial responsibility.

(3) Failure to comply with or respond to lawful inquiries, regulations, or orders of the Coast Guard pertaining to activities subject to this part.

(4) Failure to timely file the statements or affidavits required by § 130.9(b)(3) (i), (ii), or (iii).

(5) Cancellation or termination of any insurance form, surety bond, guaranty or other undertaking under this part unless acceptable substitute evidence of financial responsibility has been submitted.

(b) Denial or revocation of a Certificate is immediate and without prior notice where the applicant or certificant—

(1) Is no longer the responsible operator of the vessel in question;

(2) Fails to furnish acceptable evidence of financial responsibility in support of an application; or

(3) Permits the cancellation or termination of the insurance form, surety bond, guaranty or other undertaking upon which the continued validity of the Certificate was based. In any other case, before the denial or revocation of a Certificate, the Commandant (G-MER-1) advises the applicant or certificant, in writing, of the intention to deny or revoke the Certificate, and states the reason therefor.

(c) If the reason for an intended revocation is failure to file the required financial statements or affidavits, the revocation is effective 10 days after the date of the notice of intention to revoke, unless the certificant shall, before revocation, demonstrate that the required statements were timely filed.

(d) If the intended denial or revocation is based upon one of the reasons in paragraph (a) (1) or (3) of the section, the applicant or certificant may request, in writing, a hearing to show that the applicant or certificant is in compliance with this part, and, if the request is received within 30 days after the date of the notification of intention to deny or revoke, the Coast Guard schedules a hearing. Hearings are conducted in accordance with § 135.223 of this subchapter.

§ 130.13 Fees.

(a) This section establishes the application fee imposed by the Coast Guard for processing applications, and also establishes the certification fee imposed for the issuance or renewal of Certificates.

(b) No Certificate is issued unless the fees set forth in paragraphs (d) and (e) of this section have been paid.

(c) Fees shall be paid in United States currency, by check, draft or postal money order made payable to the U.S. Coast Guard.

(d) Each applicant who submits an application for the first time shall pay an initial, nonrefundable application fee of $75. Only one application fee is necessary where an applicant submits an application for individual Certificates and a separate application for a Master Certificate. Applications for additional Certificates, or to amend or renew existing Certificates, do not require new application fees. However,
